

CHAPEL CHATTER

Open Hearts/Open Minds/Wide Open Doors

Pastor's Note

We often perceive generosity as something someone wants from us, yet the Bible teaches it as something God desires of us. We are in the midst of stewardship season, journeying together on a six-week sermon series entitled: "The Power of Generosity." We are learning the transformative power of generosity in our lives and why it's a practice aligned with God's intentions for all of us. We are exploring how the Bible speaks about generosity, including how followers of Jesus are to practice generosity. By practicing generosity, followers of Jesus learn what generosity does for us—changes our lives, breaks the grip of materialism, expresses compassion, builds margin, creates influence and yields joy.

This month of November, we are also celebrating Thanksgiving Day with our families and loved ones. We're reminded almost daily that our faith doesn't spare us from hardship, pain, grief, or loss. There are days when grief, anxiety and loneliness suck the life out of us. We certainly don't find ourselves feeling very grateful. When life is going well, it's easy to be grateful. But what about when life doesn't make sense? When we hit rock bottom, we have often been asked if people can—or even should—feel grateful under such dire

But the Bible is clear, even though it is difficult to hear. Apostle Paul says, "Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." (1 Thess. 5:16-18). The words are hard but we need to wrestle with them. This is a tough verse for many people who are struggling and facing tremendous adversities in life.

You may think, surely Paul made a mistake or even that this was easy for him to say. But it wasn't. Paul suffered from some very difficult problem that he called a thorn in the flesh. He also had been run out of town, beaten, whipped, imprisoned, betrayed by friends, naked, cold, hungry shipwrecked, and stoned because of his faith. Yet, Paul never stopped giving thanks to God who is faithful and generous all the time! That is why Thanksgiving should not be a 1-day event, but must be a practice 365 days or everyday of our lives.

This Thanksgiving, let us be generous and thankful! Let us thank God for the generosity of mind, body and spirit! Let us thank God for the generosity of food, job and dwelling. Let us thank God for the generosity of family and relationships. Let us thank God for the generosity of the church and community. Let us thank God for the generosity of hope and resilience. And let us thank God singing the familiar hymn: “Give thanks with a grateful heart, give thanks to the Holy One, give thanks because He’s given Jesus Christ His Son.”

SENIOR CIRCLE, OCTOBER 16, 2024

As the weather cools down, it is a blessing to share the warmth of fellowship at Senior Circle. After we shared blessings and concerns, Pastor Edgar spoke to us about the unpredictability of life as evidenced by hurricanes Helene and Milton. He reminded us that the power of the Holy Spirit and Christ's love will be with us in every trial to strengthen us and sustain us. Echoing the words of the hymn "Blessed Assurance", he encouraged us to turn to God's word for encouragement every day.

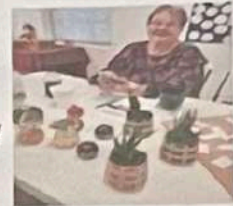

Abner Cobb and David Woodlief explain how to maintain smoke detectors.

Pastor Edgar then introduced our guests, David Woodlief, Chief of Kittrell Fire Department, and Abner Cobb, a volunteer fireman who serves Kittrell and the surrounding area. We learned about different types of fire extinguishers, smoke detectors, and fire blankets. They gave us handouts explaining top tips for fire safety and tips to prevent fires from happening in our homes.

Their dedication to their work and desire to help and protect others in time of need was evident as they answered questions and explained the different aspects of their work. They reach out to the community by visiting schools and groups interested in fire safety and the men of the fire department also sponsor community events such as the Fall Festival to be held October 26, from 10 to 3. There will be games, bouncy houses, free hot dogs and helicopters and all are welcome.

Janet Bobbitt surprised us with beautifully crafted door prizes to add to the fun. Pumpkin shapes and planters went to the people who had the lucky numbers. We never know quite what to expect at our gatherings where people share crafts, baked goodies, or just a plain old show and tell.

We would like to welcome Sylvia Cates and Debbie Englebright from Bethel UMC. We hear they make a delicious ham biscuit and we are looking forward to seeing them at the next meeting and enjoying their ham biscuits as well. New faces are always more than welcome and add to the joy of fellowship.

- 12. The Panelists must highlight the assets, gifts and strengths of the church and the community (asset-based approach) during the presentation.
- 13. The Panelists must be ready also to respond to the "friendly sharks" feedback questions: Does the project address the systemic issue? Did you form new relationships as well as strengthen existing ones as part of this process? Do you plan to continue to seek out new partnerships and opportunities for collaboration? Did a theme of common gifts on the team emerge? Does your project proposal utilize these gifts to the fullest extent possible? What is the community issue your team is trying to address and how do you know it is actually an issue? Is the project realistic and sustainable?

Rooted in Love
 Rural Church Gatherings

Bethel UMC & Plank Chapel UMC are participating in "Rooted in Love" Leadership Training jointly sponsored by Center for Leadership Excellence & the Duke Endowment. This short-term leadership training aims to develop and equip our lay leadership for hospitality ministry and the "how to" in terms of reaching out and building relationships for Jesus Christ to new and diverse people in our community. Each church that fully participates in the program will receive a $750 mini-grant to spruce up a sign, build a welcome cart, throw a neighborhood block party, improve food ministry outreach, or run a campaign on social media.

The first in-person gathering will be on Saturday, November 2nd, 9am-2pm @ Creedmoor UMC (214 Park Avenue, Creedmoor, NC). Here are the teams:

Session 1 – Rooted in Hospitality: Cultivating Hospitable Churches and Congregations, with Jason Moore November 2, 9am-2pm, Creedmoor UMC, 214 Park Ave. Creedmoor Sometimes, we have blind spots and all churches have visitors who come and do not return. Our focus will be equipping leaders to know what to do to help newcomers feel like they belong from day one Session 2 – Rooted in Mission: Moving from Charity to Solidarity, with Dr. Margaret Brunson February 1, 9am-2pm, Plank Chapel UMC, 3047 Bobbitt Road, Kittrell This session will help churches understand “the why” when planning and initiating church and community mission work. Congregations will better understand how to walk alongside their neighbors in partnership instead of through charity alone.

Session 3 – Rooted in Relationship: Seeing Your Neighbor, with Dr. Margaret Brunson March 29, 9am-2pm Spring Valley UMC, 955 Spring Valley Rd, Henderson

As disciples, we are called to develop and deepen friendships and relationships with those who are different from us. This is key to living fully as the body of Christ. During this session, you will have a chance to develop skills to connect authentically with others.

Session 4 – Reflections, Date TBD, Mt. Carmel UMC, 101 Mt. Carmel Rd, Henderson

Since change takes time and reflection, we will schedule a shorter reflection session in May/ June. This will be an opportunity for each church to share any “wins” and learnings while sharing a final meal together.

COMMUNITY TRUNK OR TREAT

Dozens of children attended Trunk or Treat, a community event hosted by Plank Chapel UMC's Journey on Sunday, Oct. 27th. Decorated vehicles lined the lawn adjacent to the pavilion to create a festival atmosphere with games, photo boards and - of course - candy. As the 4 p.m. event kicked off, area families arrived with most youngsters dressed in their Halloween costumes, ready to participate in the festivities. They were greeted at the far end of the parking lot by the Kittrell Volunteer Fire Department, which had two trucks on display, as well as a team handing out candy and showing families various equipment used by the organization.

The Journey registration table, manned by Scott Ritchey, was busy as guests picked up forms for children to use as they played the variety of games along the Trunk of Treat trail. Kids were awarded a sticker at each game they tried and their sticker sheets were redeemed at the pavilion for novelty prizes. Peggy Hernandez served as prize table host. Scott also answered parents' questions related to Journey and its mission, and reported that seven new children registered to participate at future gatherings.

Trunk or treaters were also welcomed by costumed adults at the numerous vehicles along the walk. In addition, there were crafts - provided by Lora and Wayne Young - and other games in the pavilion as well as a corn hole game set up in the lawn. A number of church members provided additional prizes and candy for Trunk or Treat. Journey members met in fellowship hall at the close of the event with a devotional presented by Nancy Gustafson and prayer by Pastor Edgar. Frank and Stacey Winn provided pizza.

The next meeting of Journey is slated for Nov. 24 with a hayride and weenie roast. Details will be forthcoming.

Journey is a safe and caring space where children and youth can encounter the love of Christ Jesus through "becoming, belonging and believing." For more information visit plankchapel.org or call Ron Gustafson at (203) 641-2889.
